REPORT OF THE SCHOOL BOARD.

To the citizens of the town of Hebron, the School Board respectfully submit their report for the year ending Mar. 1st, 1894:—

As in the past, there have been two schools supported by the town district, one at East Hebron and one at the village. We have also sent one scholar to Bridgewater.

In the East Hebron division of the district there have been two terms of school. The spring term of eight weeks was taught by Miss Ethel E. Dubia of Canaan, and the fall term of nine weeks by Miss Una E. Cross of Bristol. Both these young ladies were teachers of some experience, and tried hard to make the school profitable. If they did not succeed quite as well as we hoped they might, let us be as lenient as possible. We would cheerfully recommend either of these young ladies to teach in any ordinary school.

Roll of Honor: Spring term, Walter R. Merrill, Eddie W. Merrill, Walter Adams, N. Maud Merrill. Fall term, Frank Russell. Number of visitors spring term, 11; fall term, 4.

The village school had two terms, both of which were taught by Miss Celia A. Jewell, a teacher of much experience. Her schools the past year, as in former years, have ranked among the best. The prompt and correct answers of the scholars showed that both teachers and scholars had labored hard and faithfully.

The parents and friends of this district take a great interest in the school. A choice literary program was listened to by a large number of visitors at the close of both terms. We have noted with much pleasure the interest manifested in this school, for parents will almost invariably be prompted to visit a school in which they are interested sufficiently to see that their children are punctual.

Number of visitors summer term, 59; winter term, 72.

Roll of Honor: Summer term, Luella H. Follansbee, Alice M. Morgan, Mamie A. Rogers, Lula D. Morgan, Jessie L. Morgan, Lena M. Bryar, Mabel C. Smith, Addie Smith, Syd Huckins, Ernest K. Bryar, Merton K. Bryar, Herbert A. Morgan. Fall term, Luella H. Follansbee, Lena M. Bryar, Addie Smith, Ernest K. Bryar, Merton K. Bryar, Syd Huckins, Herbert A. Morgan. Roll of Honor for the year, Luella H. Follansbee, Lena M. Bryar, Addie Smith, Ernest K. Bryar, Merton K. Bryar, Herbert A. Morgan.

GENERAL REMARKS.

It has been the endeavor of your school board to secure teachers of mental and moral worth. A pleasant relationship should exist between pupils and teachers, and whenever a report of disorder in a school gets abroad, parents should inquire how much of it is due to their own children and apply the proper remedy if they are in fault. There seems to be a disposition among some of the parents to listen too much to the gossip of the children, and we would recommend that they visit the school and judge for themselves where the blame comes before judging too hastily. We not only need good teachers, but good scholars as well, and a good scholar is one who is taught to respect and obey his teacher. Parents, once more let us urge you to oftener visit the school-room, thus encouraging the teacher and scholars with the interest you manifest. This is particularly to be desired in the East Hebron school. Let us contrast the difference in the interest manifested in the two schools. In the village school there were 131 visits by parents and citizens during the year, while there were only 15 in the East Hebron school.

In conclusion we will say let us all, teachers, parents and children, work together for the best good of our schools, and grand results will soon be apparent.

Respectfully submitted,
